

RE: Jeff Waldron steals Intellectual Property from Scott Goold, Class of 1975

May 31, 2024

Scott Goold created graphical imagery and authored textual content pursuant to Copyright Law of the United States (Title 17), and posted this copyrighted intellectual property to the HHSRams1975 website, a product of InfoImagination © 2008-2024. Jeff Waldron stole this property and posted the material unlawfully to his Facebook project, May 27, 2024 (screenshot 5.31.24). Jeff refuses to transfer the Class of 1975 Facebook page to the ad hoc Reunion 50 committee. Class President filed a complaint with the Pocatello Police Department.

When first connecting with the committee, Scott Goold discovered they had no website. Scott designed and created a full-function database driven application, including a backend administrative portal.

Scott Goold created a section, In Loving Memory, to honor classmates who have passed. The committee did not have such a feature included in the class Facebook page. Jeff Waldron not only stole the intellectual property of InfoImagination, but copied Scott Goold's creative design.

MARK RENBERG: MARCH 14, 2022

March 14th 2022-10:05am was my last goodbye as I held your hand and you passed on 🙏🏻 March 14th 2024: it's now 2 years later and as this day fades away I will share some thoughts. I am so grateful for our life together but oh how I mourn your death . I cherish our memories, but I'm sad for those not made. I recognize the beauty in life, even as I experience its ugliness. I embrace hope and joy, even though my heart breaks. I will live in happiness with my beautiful family, even though I grieve. Losing Mark was painful and the biggest challenge still today is learning to live without him in everyday. I miss him more than anyone can know and as time goes by my emptiness grows. But I will laugh, I will talk, and I will play my part, but behind my smile is a true broken heart. I am his wife, he is
